Face Painting: 11th January, 2017

Face painting is a very tedious form of art where the artist paints the face of his/her “subject”, which is typically another person's face. The event was organized by the art club of the University - Artistico, the event gave an opportunity to artists to try their hand at a different type of canvas. Being an in-house event, it also ensured organic and fresh participation. In this event painting was made on the faces of students who volunteered.
