Fellowship/scholarship policy for PhD scholar

"Our university supports the fellowship and scholarship policies offered by both the state and central governments, specifically tailored for PhD students. These policies aim to provide financial assistance and support to students pursuing their doctoral studies. The programs encompass a range of benefits and criteria to encourage academic excellence and promote research in various fields.

Central Government Scholarships and Fellowships for PhD Students:

1. National Scholarship Portal (NSP): A comprehensive platform that hosts multiple scholarships catering to students from diverse backgrounds, such as minorities, Scheduled Castes (SC), Scheduled Tribes (ST), and economically disadvantaged sections.
2. UGC Scholarships: The University Grants Commission (UGC) administers scholarships and fellowships for different categories of students, including the UGC NET Junior Research Fellowship (JRF), the Maulana Azad National Fellowship (MANF), and Post Graduate Scholarships for Professional Courses for SC/ST candidates.
3. INSPIRE Scholarship: Offered by the Department of Science and Technology (DST), this scholarship supports PhD students specializing in natural and basic sciences at the Bachelor's and Master's levels.
4. Prime Minister's Research Fellowship (PMRF): Tailored for those pursuing doctoral research at premier institutions like IITs and IISERs, this fellowship is designed to encourage high-quality research and innovation.
5. Ramanujan Fellowship: Administered by the Department of Science and Technology, this fellowship targets accomplished researchers and scientists to contribute to India's research landscape.

State Government Scholarships and Fellowships for PhD Students:

Chief Minister Higher Education Scholarship Scheme: This scheme was launched by the Madhya Pradesh government to provide financial assistance to meritorious students pursuing higher education, including PhD programs. The scholarship aimed to support students from economically weaker sections of the society. Eligibility criteria, application procedures, and the amount of scholarship provided could vary based on the specific academic level and category of the student.
